THE Whigs of Bluehill will celebrate the approaching Anniversary of the birth of our National Independence on the Fourth of July next. An Oration will be delivered by Gov. KENT, and a FREE COLLATION will be furnished for the occasion for all who may choose to attend.

POLK PRINCIPLES AT THE SOUTH.

At a recent meeting of the "Polk Democracy" at Richmond, Virginia, George McDuffie of South Carolina, was put forth as the great point of attraction, and as the exponent of the new phase of locofocoism under the nomination of Mr. Polk. His speech occupied two hours in the delivery, and was violently abusive of the North and of Northern men, and even the women of the North, for offences never before dreamed of, are traduced almost as badly as Northern men.

THE report has been reported for publication in the New York Express, and a correspondent of that paper represents that the speech takes the most ultra ground upon the Texas question and upon the tariff. It is violent in the defence of the extreme Southern opinion for annexation, and burdened with denunciations of the Tariff of 1842—Northern manufacturers are called "plunderers," and Southern Whigs their allies.

THE seven Southern States south of the Potomac are exhorted to unite in order to bring the North at the feet of the South in behalf of the Union.

THE nullification of 1832 is acknowledged to have been an error of policy, but the principle is defended without any compunction of conscience. In order to make the principle more effective, an urgent appeal is made to the South to become united.

THE speech also gives an account of Mr. Benton's interview with Mr. McDuffie upon the last day of the session, and denies what all who were present at the interview will not believe that he Mr. McDuffie, covered under the assault of Col. Benton. Mr. Benton terms somewhat personal, is arranged for his account of this interview in a speech delivered the evening previous, before the Whigs of Richmond.

LET us rally a State feeling upon this subject. The tariff of 1842 cheats and plunders Maine. Let Maine then, oppose it, unitedly and vigorously. Let us listen to no excuses from party editors and politicians. Let us treat every man who upholds the tariff of 1842, as recreant to the interests of Maine, and let every such man be repudiated by Maine. It is abominable, that we should be sacrificed at this rate, on the shrine of a "Whig" politics, and to keep up a "Whig" tariff. Any body who upholds that tariff, he his politics what they may, is an ENEMY TO MAINE. If we cannot reason him out of his errors, let us keep him where he can do no harm. Above all things, do not let us send any more Senators and Members in Congress. They are both very respectable gentlemen, but moon struck with "Whig" politics. The idea of a representative from Maine, voting for the tariff of 1842 is too monstrous to be laughable. It is too serious a joke to be repeated.

WHAT DO YOU THINK OF THE PRESENT TARIFF?

Keep this a going. This will put the pillering Locos upon their back tracks. Hold up to them the following extract from the Nashville Union, the organ of Polkism now, as it was of Van Burenism lately.

"We wish it borne in mind, that the oppressive Tariff of 1842 has been condemned by every true Democrat, and by none more decidedly than Mr. Van Buren. That its provisions are viewed with abhorrence by Governor Polk and all his friends we need not repeat."

More abuse of the "Yankee."

Mr. Featherstonhaugh, who travelled through this country several years since as a Geologist, has been writing a work about the United States, which is said by the English journals to surpass in violence or abuse the famous work of Trollope, Marryatt, Hall and Dickens.

The London Spectator says, "Uncouth language and behavior, even on the part of females, offensive, and disgusting conduct by the men, habitual blasphemy, with pure unmitigated blackguardism and ruffianism, and an universal worship of Mammon superseding every other object in life, stand out strikingly in the traveller's pages; whilst his plain-spoken, straight-forward manner, gives an air of truth to his pictures."

Following is too good to be lost. A friend of the country a few days since fell in with a Loco and in the course of conversation inquired how he liked the nomination for President. He replied, "first rate, capital! Polk was a first rate man and would give ninepence a thousand more for shingles than any other man in Bangor." He supposing that our townsman Ephraim K. Paulk, shingle buyer, was the man.

THE Piscataquis Farmer has suspended operations until those indebted pay up and those who wish a paper published in that county add their names to the subscription list. The editor wishes the people to attend to this before the "snow flies."

GREAT STATE LOCO MASS MEETING.

THE Loco party have made arrangements for celebrating the Fourth of July in this city by a great State Mass Meeting. The arrangements are made upon a liberal plan, the Collation being free, and as this is a day generally celebrated in some form, and the facilities for travelling are so good we think there will be a great gathering and quite an enthusiastic time of it. We hear that great efforts have been made to have this State Mass Meeting an imposing one and undoubtedly a larger collection of that party can be gathered in this city on that day than in any part of the state.

FROM the reports that have reached us of the Masonic celebration at Portland on the 25th of June, we learn that a large number of the fraternity were present and that the occasion was one of much interest to all connected with it. The storm of persecution that swept over the institution a few years since has now passed away, and Freemasonry comes forth into active life again, chastened and purified, and unharmed.

GLORIOUS WHIG RALLY IN VERMONT.

THE Whigs of Vermont assembled in convention at Burlington, on Wednesday, the 26th of June. The convention in numbers and enthusiasm surpassed that of 1840, ten thousand whigs being on the ground.

THE following is the State Ticket nominated by the convention:—

Governor—WILLIAM SLADE.
Lt. Governor—HORACE EATON
ELECTORS.

State.
JEDUTHAH HARRIS.
DR. JOHN PECK.

Districts.
1 CALVIN TOWNSELEY
2 CAROL COOLIDGE,
3 BENJAMIN SWIFT,
4 ERASTUS FAIRBANKS.

Who is in favor of the Tariff?

THE Augusta Age of June 24, 1844, contains a leading editorial article against the Tariff of 1842. We have been particular in giving the date that the Age may be referred to if the fact shall be disputed, by those who attempt to deceive the people into the belief that the Locos are friends of the Tariff. The Age says

"A more abominable, brutal, and plundering tariff, so far as the interests of Maine are concerned, could not be devised, than this same tariff of 1842. The tariff of 1842 must be modified most essentially. It is a bill of abominations. Mr. McKay's bill was not perfect, either in principle or detail, but it was infinitely better than the present tariff. It would have afforded immense relief to the State of Maine, and yet two of our representatives, Mr. Severance and Mr. Morse, voted against it. So wonderful is the effect of party spirit!"

Let us rally a State feeling upon this subject. The tariff of 1842 cheats and plunders Maine. Let Maine then, oppose it, unitedly and vigorously. Let us listen to no excuses from party editors and politicians. Let us treat every man who upholds the tariff of 1842, as recreant to the interests of Maine, and let every such man be repudiated by Maine. It is abominable, that we should be sacrificed at this rate, on the shrine of a "Whig" politics, and to keep up a "Whig" tariff. Any body who upholds that tariff, he his politics what they may, is an ENEMY TO MAINE. If we cannot reason him out of his errors, let us keep him where he can do no harm. Above all things, do not let us send any more Senators and Members in Congress. They are both very respectable gentlemen, but moon struck with "Whig" politics. The idea of a representative from Maine, voting for the tariff of 1842 is too monstrous to be laughable. It is too serious a joke to be repeated.

THE death of Lafitte, the celebrated Paris Banker, is mentioned in the English papers

Mis-statement Corrected.
ELLSWORTH, June 28, 1844.

To the Editor of the Whig & Courier:

It is somewhat singular to what course the loco prints resort to gain their ends. Distractors from, and living libels on all human kind, these editors and scribblers, not satisfied with the credit given to their own mendacious publications, resort to other means by which they may secure the credence of the public to their filthy blackguardism and atrocious slanders. The unwary, and men who are not actually black-hearted, sometimes are made the dupes of their craftiness and cunning.

Your neighbor Walker of the Gazette, running mad after what Carlyle styles a "fixed idea," if a proper person on whom to practice their imposition.

These remarks are elicited by an article to which my attention is called by a friend, in the first number of a dirty sheet called "Yankee Doodle," with the slang of which the loco leaders, by a draft on office in expectation, are regaling the depraved appetite of readers, such as themselves. The article is headed "AT THEIR OLD TRICKS"—and is based on a question based on a quotation made from "the Bangor Gazette, a liberty party paper," which is carefully stated to ensure it a credit which, on long acquaintance, the public has refused to accord to one of their own publications.

The article I have not seen in the Gazette, that paper not being in circulation in these parts; but I copy it as published in the "Yankee Doodle," supposing that that, or something like it, has appeared in the Gazette.

"Not long ago we were informed by the driver of an Eastern Stage—a careful, trusty man—who is a democrat, that he had been dismissed from his employment on account of his politics." It fell out, he says, on a certain occasion in the town of Ellsworth, that the whigs were defeated in a political trial. Borne with rage at the result, the leaders resolved that they would give no employment to democrats, and they formed an association, and bound themselves that they would withhold their patronage from members of the democratic party. Shortly after, the stage line in which this driver was employed, fell into the hands of one of these whig leaders, and he was discharged."

The falsehoods here let us enumerate.

1st The driver, who is the only authority for the statement, would not be considered by the editor of the Gazette entitled to the epithet applied, for he is no Washingtonian, as can be easily ascertained should Mr. Walker enquire.

2d It is not true "that he was dismissed from his employment on account of his politics"—as will appear below.

3d It is false that "the leaders of the whig party in Ellsworth" as a body ever resolved that they would give no employment to democrats. Their daily practice is to employ those who give them the best satisfaction.

4th The leaders of the whigs of Ellsworth, nor any portion of the party, never formed any association binding themselves as is stated in the above quotation to withhold their patronage from the members of the democratic party.

5th. It is also false that "the stage line" referred to "fell into the hands of one of these whig leaders"

The only truth in the paragraph is that the driver was discharged on the purchase of the line by the present proprietors—they having other drivers in their employ who could and do drive their teams. Moreover, the line is at present owned by a partnership, in which there are two loco partners and one whig—who is daily in the habit of employing men of the other political party. If the driver above referred to wishes a detail of the reasons for his discharge, they can easily be assigned, but if his name were made public, it would be a great gratification to the travelling community to feel assured that they were no longer subjected to his insolence.

But see, neighbor Walker gullied. Doubtless the loco editors in Bangor had formed an acquaintance with the individual in question—they knew him well, else, being interested most, they would not have failed to add so choice a morsel to their electroneering availability—but knowing him they declined the honor of his contributions and passed him over to the editor of the Gazette who, being a little green, and having just stretched forth his hand to catch the "fixed idea," gave the subject too little consideration.

But the loco editors, too wary and cautious to publish on their own responsibility what they know is false, eagerly seize upon the slander and publish it with their comments, with the additional credit it obtains as an extract from "the Bangor Gazette—a liberty party paper." Please advise neighbor Walker to be more cautious in future, or he may find himself in trouble. If he is the fair candid man we once took him to be, he will acquaint himself with the facts and recall and apologize. It is well to remind him of the propriety of having some responsible source, when he publishes private grievances, or attacks private individuals. Of course nothing is asked or expected of the loco papers, they live by such slanders and this is the foundation of one of ten thousand equally false.

The death of Lafitte, the celebrated Paris Banker, is mentioned in the English papers

Mr. Goodhue, Chairman of the Committee on Resolutions, reported the following Resolutions, which were read and adopted:

Resolved, That the Whigs of Maine rejoice that the time has now arrived, which summons us to repeat and to vindicate the efforts we made in 1840 to aid in rescuing the country from false and dangerous policy, and to do justice to our noble State.

Resolved, That the increasing experience of the people of this nation, and the new developments of the resources of the country continue to show that the principles of the Whig party are the only practicable rules for administering the Government of our republic. Every departure from those principles has been a departure from the pure models of our early history, and it is only by bringing back the authority of those principles, that we can hope to place the Government on a more solid basis, and secure a vigorous and prosperous national advancement.

Resolved, That we congratulate ourselves and our fellow Whigs throughout the Union, that the justice, the purity and the strength of those principles has now concentrated an undoubted majority of the people in their firm support. We rejoice that the necessities of the country—the true interests of the whole—are now so clearly seen by the patriotic Whigs in all parts of the Union. In the great struggle before us, it shall be our earliest and our constant encouragement, that "OUR CAUSE IS JUST—OUR UNION IS PERFECT."

Resolved, That the people of Maine have a deep interest in that great and noble fruit of Whig effort and patriotism—the Tariff of 1842. We believe it has awakened a new energy and hope in every department of industry in this State. We rejoice that the utmost evidence of our adversaries has failed to break down the solid Protection, which that law affords to the upspring energies of our young and growing State. We are proud to know that it has created new desires and new means for improvement throughout all our borders, and has enabled the people to exert from the reluctant holders of power, long denied privileges and facilities for enterprise and universal prosperity. We exhort our fellow citizens throughout the State, to use all worthy efforts to secure the continuance of that law, and to prevent any modification or repeal of the wholesome protection to industry which it affords.

Resolved, That we recur with the most ardent satisfaction to the unanimity and the pure motives which governed the Baltimore Convention of Whigs for the nomination of candidates for the Presidency and Vice Presidency, and we ratify the proceedings of that Convention, with all our hearts. We hail with confidence and delight the nomination of the noble-hearted and patriotic Statesman of the West for the Presidency. In his profound and practical acquaintance with the principles of the Constitution and with the wise policy, to which those principles, when honestly followed, will always lead, we recognize the assurance that he will well discharge the high service of conciliating the agitations which now disturb the country, and of repelling the new dangers which party violence and sectional cupidity have brought upon us. We look to him with gratitude as the Father of the great American System of National Protection, Development and Independence, the system, which we know the people of this country are determined to enjoy. Above all we rejoice in his nomination, because we know that before all other living Statesmen, he is now first in the hearts of his countrymen. We are sure that the people of this country will elect for their next President, the man whom they LOVE most—and that man is HENRY CLAY.

In sustaining this nomination, we exhort the Whigs of Maine to command success by untiring efforts to deserve it, and we now pledge to each other and to our friends throughout the country, our best exertions to give the vote of this State for the Whig candidates and the Whig cause.

Resolved, That we appreciate with grateful pride the distinguished respect which was shown in various parts of the country to the suggestion of a candidate for the Vice Presidency from this State, and we renew the cordial testimony which the Whigs of Maine have heretofore expressed, to the merits of our eminent fellow citizen, the Hon. GEORGE EVANS. We concur with the highest pleasure in the nomination of THEO. FRELINGHUYSEN, and will exert our best efforts to exalt him to that station, for which he is eminently fitted by his just political principles, his practical, intelligent, and republican conduct, and the virtues of his personal character.

Resolved, That we know the candidates of our opponents, only as their limited and partisan services have made them known to the country—as great politicians on a small scale. To recite the names of Polk and Dallas, is only to recount the desperate extremity which selected them by a compromise without conciliation, and a union without harmony, and to predict the hopelessness of the party, which is now lashed together, but not united, in their support.

Resolved, That we have no commiseration to offer to the supporters of Mr. Van Buren in this State, for the failure of their aspirations in his behalf. We declare our conviction, that the Electoral law passed at the recent session of the Legislature, is a deliberate and shameful piece of partisan violence, and a fraud upon the rights of the people, an act of avowed usurpation to take away from the people of this State their lawful voice in the election of President, according to the method approved by the people for a quarter of a century past, and to place that important popular privilege in the hands of a Legislature, chosen for no such purpose, and never entrusted with any such power, and not permitted even, to meet at their own direction for the execution of the trust thus unlawfully assumed, but subject to the arbitrary will of a partisan Governor. We exhort the people of this State to see to it, that the authors of this usurpation, now so bitterly disappointed at their sudden transfer from Van Buren to Polk, may find their complete retribution, when a popular majority shall cast the vote of Maine for Henry Clay.

Resolved, That we are opposed to the Annexation of Texas to the United States, at any time, or under any circumstances, and such we believe to be the sentiment of a large majority of the people of Maine. We are not wanting in just sympathy for the interest of that Republic, but we believe that she has within herself and in the human principles, which govern the civilized world, all the necessary materials and guarantees for her prosperity and her independence, while she offers nothing to this country, which would compensate for the hazards, which annexation would involve. If the acquisition of Texas is to be accomplished to gratify the rapacity of sectional interests, the attempt will dangerously disturb the elements of the Constitution and the Union. In all the forms, in which annexation has recently been proposed, we believe that it involves immediate national dishonor, and the imminent hazards of injurious war. We love our country, and our whole country, as it is, and we know of no advantage, which this enlargement of our territory would offer, sufficient to compensate for the sacrifice of our HONOR and our PEACE.

Resolved, That we cheerfully and heartily respond to the nomination which has just been announced to us, of EDWARD ROBINSON for Governor of this State. In his hands, the administration of our State affairs will be honest, intelligent, practical and useful, and will do honor to the State and all its citizens. We will strenuously exert every fair and honorable effort to secure his election in September next.

Resolved, That we cordially approve the nomination of EDWARD KENT and RUFUS K. GOODKNOW for electors at large, and we trust the people of Maine will vote for them.

Court Courier.

The following causes were argued before the Supreme Court yesterday.

State of Maine vs John R. Godfrey & W. F. Allen for respondents. Att. Gen. submitted a written argument.

Coming Round.

We are beginning to see examples—which will multiply a hundred fold as the campaign advances—of responsible voters in many sections of the country leaving the ranks of the Jackson-Van Buren party, now that the desperate extremities of the party as well as their numerous errors are so manifest.

How little of attractiveness there are in the names of Polk and Dallas, and how odious are the present political opinions of those men may be seen in part from the following items of current history. It will be seen that they come from sources of known responsibility.

Among the noble delegation of Whigs from Westfield to the Whig meeting at the Town Hall on Thursday evening, there were several who, until within a year, have been firm and ardent supporters of Locofocoism. They have seen and forsaken the error of their ways.—They cannot swallow "Polk and Dallas, Free Trade and Texas."—[Springfield Republican.]

Still they Come.—The Newark Daily Advertiser of Thursday, says—We learn from an authentic source this morning, that fifteen more members of the old Van Buren party in this city, have openly proclaimed their purpose not to vote for the free trade candidates. They go for Clay, Frelinghuysen and the Tariff—as all men will who understand and value their true interests.

Another Screw Loose.—Besides the changes heretofore announced, the Genesee County Democrat, heretofore strong Locos, has refused to support Polk and Dallas and has come out for Clay and the Tariff. We expect soon to hear even of greater changes than these in the same way.—Polk and Texas! O Rhoebus!—this is almost equal to Tyler and Texas.

Progress of Whig Principles.

Movements in Pennsylvania.—The People coming in a body! The Whig ranks are receiving constant accessions, while the strength of our opponents is suffering a corresponding decrease. Nor are they suffering from individual desertions alone—men are coming over in battalions, leaving wide breaches in the wavering front of our political foes. We have a recent instance in the county of Berks in Pa., hitherto the stronghold of Locofocoism in that State. At a large meeting of the "disaffected democracy" of Heidelberg township, it appears from the Schuylkill Journal, it was resolved to renounce Locofocoism in toto, and enlist under the Whig flag. The resolutions which follow, were adopted unanimously:

Resolved, As unwavering Democrats we are bound to support true democratic principles, and that in our opinion true democratic principles are maintained by the Whig party of the United States alone.

Resolved, That we henceforth repudiate the false "Democracy" of Locofocoism.

Resolved, That we are in favor of a Tariff and the party which supports a Tariff—believing that it is right our workmen and laborers should be protected against the cheap labor of Europe.

Resolved, That the nomination of Clay and Frelinghuysen meets our cordial approbation, and believing as we do that they will sustain sound democratic principles, we will give them our hearty support.

Resolved, That we go heart and hand for the soldier and farmer of Westmoreland—General Joseph Markle—as our candidate for Governor and that we view with contempt the assertions of our opponents that he is "incompetent"—believing that a farmer is just as fit for a Gov. as a parson.

Resolved, That we hail with much satisfaction the evidence in all parts of the country and in this county that the people are awakening to a sense of the importance of the crisis, and are preparing an united support to Clay, Frelinghuysen and Markle.

Col Lindsay and others, who have recently renounced Locofocoism, addressed the meeting, which adjourned with nine cheers for HENRY CLAY. So rolls the Whig ball!

African Slave Trade.

The benevolent resolution of Mr. Mercer of Virginia, on this head, met with almost unanimous approval.

May 13, 1821, Mr. Mercer introduced the following resolution:

Resolved, That the President of the United States be requested to renew, and to prosecute, from time to time, such negotiations with the several maritime powers of Europe and America as he may deem expedient for the effectual abolition of the African slave trade, and its ultimate denunciation of PIRACY, under the laws of nations, by the consent of the civilized world.

On passing this resolution the yeas were 118, nays 32. MR. POLK VOTED IN THE NEGATIVE.—Con. Deb. vol. 7, page 850.

A Crumb of Comfort for the Northern Locofocos.

The Charleston Mercury, an out-and-out Polk paper, says:

"MR. POLK'S VIEWS ON THE TARIFF, the Bank, and the ALL ABSORBING QUESTION of Texas, are SOUTHERN TO THE BACK BONE."

[Hon Caleb Cushing.]

A correspondent of the New York Express writing from Washington under date of the 20th instant says—

Nothing has yet been heard from Mr Cushing, and the most serious apprehensions are entertained for his safety. In these apprehensions, Captain Newton, late of the ill-fated U. S. Steamer Missouri, in which Mr Cushing sailed as far as the Mediterranean partakes,

Mr. R. H. Norton living upon the Brockton Road at No. 3 arrived in this city last evening and stated to us that a gang of counterfeiters, have been passing off, among the people, up the river, counterfeit Sovereigns prepared from English Shilling pieces by a preparation of gold. While coming into the city yesterday he overtook, at Lincoln, a man on foot. He invited him to ride and after a variety of conversation the subject of the counterfeiters in the country was introduced.

The man conversed freely, and at length told Mr M. that one of his neighbors, calling him by name, was one of the "head devils" of the gang—that most of them were in the Provinces, and others at Houlton. Mr M. told him he should like his deposition as to what he had stated, at which the man manifested some uneasiness, and finally, when near the hotel in Greenbush, made a pretence for getting out of the wagon and escaping into the bushes, leaving his bundle of clothing behind him. Search was made in vain, but arrangements have been made to have those persons who are by this means suspected, fully examined. It appears that the neighbor of Mr M. mentioned, has been in the habit of purchasing silver coin, such as has been prepared and passed for sovereigns.

The Tariff and Polk.

Let the People remember that Mr Polk is utterly opposed to the present Whig Tariff. That he is utterly opposed to any Protective Tariff.

That he opposes any higher rate of duty than 20 per cent. and wishes many other articles admitted at a less duty than that.

That he is therefore the worst enemy of American labor and industry—the foe of Mechanics, Artisans, Farmers and Manufacturers and of the general prosperity.

Let Farmers remember that he is in favor of admitting Wool duty free.

That agriculture is fostered by the Tariff which creates a home market for produce; and that the vast wool growing interest will perish without protection.

Polk Against the Old Patriots of the Revolution!

March 13, 1828, on the passage of the bill for the relief of surviving officers of the revolutionary war, Mr Polk voted in the negative.—Cong. Debate, vol. 4, part 2, page 2670.

Subsequently, on a bill to pay certain militia, &c., he voted in the affirmative.

HENRY A. WOOD, Bangor.
LEWIS P. MEAD & CO., Providence, R. I.
July 1, 1844.

CIRCULAR.

THE subscriber truly grateful for the many marks of favor bestowed upon him for the last five years by his fellow citizens and friends in this and adjoining Counties, would respectfully request the patronage of as many as can make it convenient hereafter, and assures all that he has so connected himself with manufacturers of Stoves and other Iron Ware that he will in his new capacity be at all times well supplied with the very best of Castings made from the best quality of Iron now known for Stove manufacturing, and would state for the satisfaction of the public, that of more than 200 Cook Stoves sold by him the past year made of Putnam, Vermont Iron, not one to his knowledge has cracked or broken from the effect of fire and of more than $20,000 worth purchased of the above named castings by him for the last 5 years not one tenth of one per cent has cracked in fair common use. This must be acknowledged by all to be without a parallel in stove vinding. Owing to the extreme demand for Stoves of this manufactory the subscriber has been unable heretofore to be amply supplied with Stoves of their make, and in order to increase his supply has been induced to connect himself in business with the manufactory at Vermont and Rhode Island, and would invite all who are in want of good, strong and durable Cooking Stoves to call on HENRY A. WOOD & Co, No. 1, 2, 3, Mercantile Block, Broad Street, where they will at all times find a good assortment of the above named Vermont Castings, and an extensive assortment of other kinds of Stove Castings.

Mr W. would call the attention of his country friends to the celebrated Maine Farmer's Cook Stove invented by himself in the fall of 1841, and introduced by him about two years since, of which he has sold near 300, and in every case has given the most entire satisfaction. This stove has 3 fire rooms one of which will admit wood 26 inches long or common cord wood sawed once—the back fire room is smaller and is immediately under the oven and with a few chips or light stuff the oven can be heated, and 2 boilers boiled and that without heating the room to put the most delicate lady to the least inconvenience in dig-days. The Charcoal or front fire room is calculated for broiling, boiling or frying but is more particularly calculated for broiling and frying as by opening the front doors of the Stove all of the steam of frying which is the most offensive will escape into the stove and pass off into the pipe—it has in all 5 places for boiling and a very large elevated oven and will do more business with the least trouble of any stove now in use.

July 1. HENRY A. WOOD.

NOTICE

ALL persons having unsettled accounts with the subscriber are requested to present the same for settlement.

Also, all persons owing the subscriber if due and over due, either by note or book account are requested to make immediate payment of the same.

LIFE INSURANCE.
13, Exchange Street, PORTLAND.
ITILE & BROTHER are Agents for the Mutual Life Insurance Company, of New York.

This Company the whole of the net profits are divided personally among the insured, and the amount is payable on the death of the party to his representatives, thus combining the advantages of a Saving Institution of the best kind with insurance, by which those who are not wealthy provide for their families, and capitalists find a profitable investment.

The advantages of such insurance to the individual, to his family and to the community, are obvious. A person 30 years of age, by paying $1.31 annually, may secure $100 to his family should he die within the year, and one in his 40th year may secure the same by paying $1.69.

A young man 21 years of age, without capital, by paying $9.00 may obtain a Policy for $1000 for 1 year, and thereby procure means to begin business, purchase tools or a library, or complete an education. We have already made Policies for such purposes.

A creditor may give himself additional security by insuring on a debtor's life. In England where investments pay not over 3 1/2 per cent. per annum, the profits to assured have been very great, as the following will show, viz: a person at the age of 30 effected insurance on his life for $1000, at the expiration of 30 years by the death of the insured, the accumulated profits together with the sum insured, gave his heirs about $6000. In this Company the investments (already made) are now paying 5 per cent., and the probability is that the results with this office will be equally profitable, if not more so.

No person having a family who is able to save $100 per month, should delay a moment, to obtain policy at this office.

Any information that may be desired, can be obtained by calling on the subscribers.
